About the venue

Pengo's Café is situated just a stone's throw to the water's edge at Shoalwater Bay, With Penguin Island just a short ferry ride away, the café is a regular gathering place for tourists and locals alike.

In 2015, Pengo's was given a fresh new look – beautiful timber features paired with crisp black and white and splashes of yellow all create a feeling of warmth when you walk through the door.

The alfresco area, surrounded by greenery and with a view to the water, is the perfect place to gather with friends and family or to network with colleagues... whatever your event, we'd love to have you.
